People don't listen to Buddha's Teaching. Any piece of advice, Master?

Ejyo (1198-1289) was a Zen priest under Master Dogen (1200-1253) at Eihei-ji Zen monastery. One day Ejyo asked his Master, "People don't listen to the Teaching of Buddha seriously. Do you have any piece of advice, Master Dogen?"

The Master recommended, "When you share the Dharma, emphasize impermanence of this world and our lives (death). Emphasize our blind karmas (ignorance)."

The Master's advice was a simple message: First thing's first.

Once upon a time in a village of long ago, a burglar broke in a rich man's house and demanded, "Your money or your life!" while brandishing a big, sharp knife. Both the husband and wife shuddered with fear as they handed over money to the bad guy who grabbed the money and ran away. The scary happening was soon widespread and every villager came to know about it in the morning. Many villagers came to offer the family a sympathetic ear. The husband and wife were still shaking. Then the husband told the terrible experience. "How fearful that was! Both of us were about to be killed! My body is still shuddering."

One Nembutsu follower was there listening and said to all who were also listening, "Humph, that's nothing. The most fearful thing in this world is to not listen to the Teaching of Buddha."

Then all of a sudden the husband stopped shuddering and said, "Oh, it is true indeed! The Nembutsu practitioner is indeed someone!" First thing's first!

Amida's Teaching is called as "Ultimate Dharma." This means that everything is already solved in that Dharma. Everything is there! That's why it is not necessary to look for truth. What we have to do is listen to the Supreme Dharma and to find ourselves in there.

The final advice when we listen to Amida's Teaching.

"Subject-object attitude in listening" does not work at all. It took me a few years to realize the error in listening as if I was the subject and the Teaching was the object; treating it just like math. So I thought I had to make efforts to understand it. However, after I got knowledge and understanding about the Teaching, nothing happened. Every effort ended in vain.

"Subject-subject attitude in listening" true way and it works. It is simply because the Teaching is made to work so. In other words, the Teaching is the other me just like the 48 vows that clearly show what I am. Both of these, from the beginning, are already one. So I recognize myself in the Ultimate Dharma. Then, how can we find us in Dharma? Many happenings in everyday living give you hints and triggers to open up Immeasurable World of Amida. I soon leave Denver for Bay Area in California. I sincerely wish that you don't die in vain and I will meet you again in Dharma.

In Gassho,
Rev. Doei Fujii (4-2019)

Monthly Salutations from Rev. Diana Thompson

Hello everyone, welcome to April! This month, we are observing Hanamatsuri, the celebration of the birth of Shakyamuni Buddha. There are many different Buddhist traditions throughout the world and we all have our ways of celebrating the important events in the life of the Buddha.

Sometimes they are observed separately, sometimes on the same day, but for Buddhists worldwide, April 8th, the Buddha's birthdate, is the most important observance of the year and the one that we all share.

One of the things that we do at this time is to recall the story of the Buddha's birth. This is a tale that many of us have heard over and over and it is filled with wonderful images such as elephants walking on moonbeams and babies making proclamations. Some of the imagery in this story may seem strange or overly fantastical but overall, the story is meant to remind us of the marvelous life to come of the future Buddha. He will be a great teacher and liberator and therefore had to come from marvelous beginnings. Also, this story is one that unites us as Buddhists and it is this idea of unity that I found most moving this year.

I recently attend our Buddhist Churches of America National Council Meeting in Phoenix, Arizona. This meeting is attended by ministers, temple and district presidents and other lay delegates who represent our Jodo Shinshu temples in the continental United States. We come together for business matters (budgets, by-laws, etc.) but we also gather to deepen our appreciation of the Dharma which we do by attending lectures, talks and workshops. The theme of this year's conference was 'Major League Buddhism' and all of our activities were focused on the idea of 'teams'. We talked about ways to ensure that we could create and maintain solid and cohesive teams within our sanghas, not only at the local levels, but at district and national levels as well.

Teamwork and unity were all around us for the entire week. As we were in Phoenix during Spring Training, they arranged for the minister's dinner to be at one of the baseball games. We sat with other ministers and members enjoying the pleasantly warm evening with hot dogs, helmet nachos, laughter and some rather tasty local beer. I even caught a foul ball! (a story you can ask me about later) From there (that was the first night), we heard lectures about our shared history (from Shinran to the history of the BCA), and we attended panel discussions where members shared their personal stories of deep appreciation for the Dharma.

On the final evening, we attended the annual banquet which typically ends with a guest speaker chosen by the hosting district. However this year, in keeping with the teamwork theme, the host district decided to have us do a group activity. Each table was given a children's song and we had to work as a group to come up with lyrics to go with the tune of that song which we then had to perform for the entire group. As you can imagine, this resulted in much hilarity and was the perfect end to the conference as I could truly feel the great unity that we had built up over the week.

So this year, as you listen to the story of Buddha's birth, try to think about how many other Buddhists have heard this same story and have shared it over generations. Think about how we are united through this story and how truly wonderful it is to have been able to hear the Dharma and to share it with our fellow travelers. Namo Amida Butsu

あーらいやだ、あなたのリンゴがないわ

幼い姉妹がいた。ある日のことお腹をすかした二人が台所に入るとテーブルの上にリンゴが一つ置いてあった。それを見た姉が言った。「いやだ一、妹の分がないわ、かわいそうに」と。このねえちゃん、恐るべし！なあーに、一つのリンゴを半分にすれば事足りる話だが、その姉は幼いののに中々のつわものらしい。この世は最初に言い出し・ツバを付けた者が勝つのである。

リンゴ一つの話なら笑ってすむが、世界はまだまだ複雑に出来ている。例えば、日本は中国とは尖閣諸島（せんかく）をめぐる攻防を重ねている。片や、韓国とは竹島をめぐる不仲が続いている。日中韓の三国は互いに一步も譲らないかまえて「おれのものだ！」とやり合っている。

日本は中国に「あーいやだ一、中国の分が無いわ。かわいそうに」と言う。中国はイライラ・ムカムカして挑発を繰り返すが、日本は「中国の分はもうありません」との態度をつらぬく。中国は遅すぎたのである。他方、韓国は日本に「あーいやだ一、日本の分がないわ。かわいそうに」と言う。日本は「それは日本の物だ」と腹を立てるが、少々遅い。そしていったん手にすれば「半分にしよう」などとどこの国も考えない。先に手にした方が物事をコントロールし、遅れた者は苛立つばかりで物事は一層ややっこしくなる。

ところで、仏教には「布施行（ふせ・ぎょう）」があり、この行は困っている人に何かを施す行でもなければ、他者を喜ばす行為でもなく、ましてや感謝されるための行でもない。この行は自分の抱える「誰にもあげたくない」という貪（むさぼ）りの心を退治する修行で、その行はまた「喜捨（きしゃ）」とも言われる。渋々行じるのではなく、もったいぶって施すのでもなく、喜んで貪欲（とんよく）を捨てることが求められるから「喜捨」という。仏法の立場から言えば姉が「ああうれしい、妹の分だけあるわ。ああ、良かった」と一つのリンゴを見て言うことなのである。こうなれば争いは起こらない。

何ともうるわしく立派なお話だが、私はいつもこの事で考え込んでしまう。「藤井先生は立派な犬を持っている。私はその犬が欲しい」と言う人があれば、私は喜んで贈呈する。それは私に布施行をする力量があるからではなく、数時間おきに犬をトイレに連れ出すとき、決まって「お前の番だ」「貴方の番よ」と家内と言いつ争うのが面倒なだけだ。自分に余っているものがあれば、差し上げる。だが、必要なものは「差し上げない」のが私の本性であり根性である。

恥ずかしいことだが、私という人間は「布施行」もできない身であり、この事が知れたのはミダ法を聞き続けたお陰である。ミダ仏はこのような私こそがミダ仏の正客だという。そのミダ法を無上法（むじょう・ほう）という。どうしようもない愚者を最上の真実の中に導き入れるからである。ミダの智慧・慈悲にふれると、どうもえらそうなことが言えなくなる。

合掌、藤井道栄

Jr. YBA is going to be visiting a retirement home to play BINGO and spend time with the residents there. At this time we are asking the Temple Sangha for small gifts that we can take with us as BINGO prizes.

Appropriate gifts are in the $5-$10 price range; you can also donate cash or gift cards in this price range. We think adult coloring books, stationery or other items that promote activity and fun.

Thank you.

Farewell & Arigatou Gozaimasu

After signing on with Tri-State/Denver Buddhist Temples 9 ¼ years ago (January 1, 2010), Rev. and Mrs. Fujii will be saying their good-byes on April 21st as they head off to their new assignment at Southern Alameda County Buddhist Church in Union City, CA.

As a BCA temple we are bound to sharing a limited number of Jodo Shinshu ministers with all other BCA temples throughout the continental United States. So we have been quite fortunate to share and learn Dharma with Rev. Fujii for an extended amount of time.

We invite all Sangha members to attend the April 7th combined Hanamatsuri/Farewell luncheon potluck immediately following the celebratory Hanamatsuri service (which begins at 9:30 a.m.). Please attend to convey your congratulations and gratitude.

Please follow the suggested potluck food assignment:

- Last name A-L >>> Main Dish

BWA Happenings! March 2019

On Sunday April 21, 2019 the BWA will host an Eshinni and Kakushinni Day of Remembrance Service for both Family and Adult Services. Eshinni was the wife of Shinran Shonin and Kakushinni was the daughter of Shinran and Eshinni. Both ladies were devoted disciples of Shinran Shonin and helped spread the Dharma by aiding suffering and wounded soldiers, and feeding the poor and starving villagers. The acts of kindness and service of Eshinni and Kakushinni will be remembered on this special day.

The BWA will be hosting a bake sale the following week on April 28. Everyone is urged to bring in their special treats! On the same day we would like to host a "Itty Bitty" table of small trinkets, jewelry, or other small items. The sale of these items will be used to help fund future conferences, seminars, and other special projects. Please start collecting small items and bring them to Temple. We're looking for a volunteer to "man" the Itty Bitty table.

The 16th World Buddhist Convention will be held in San Francisco California August 30-September 1, 2019 at the Marriott Marquis Hotel in downtown San Francisco. We are encouraging as many BWA members young and old to attend this world wide convention. There will be over 2,000 fellow Jodo Shinshu Buddhists from Canada, Japan, South America as well as the United States in attendance. There will be workshops and speakers who will talk on subjects as "Mindfulness and Shin," "Blissfully Ever After—Buddhist Weddings in BCA," and other topics. The Registration fee is $350. Registration forms and registration fees are due by the deadline of April 15, 2019. Please turn in to any of the BWA officers. Access to the convention website www.wbwconvention.org

The DBT BWA recently made a generous monetary donation to the Obaachan (Grandmother) Fund to honor past BWA members. This Obaachan donation is in conjunction with the 16th World Buddhist Women's Convention. This donation will be listed in the Wheel of Dharma.

Shotsuki Monthly Memorial Service

April 28, 2019

The Shotsuki Service is a general memorial service held on a monthly basis for members and friends of the temple who have passed away during the month of service. Although there are major memorial (hoji) services set at specific time intervals such as 49th Day, 1st Year, 3rd Year, 7th, 13th, 17th, 25th, 33rd and 50th years, the temple provides families with monthly memorial Shotsuki services held in conjunction with regularly scheduled Sunday services, so family members will have the opportunity to pay respect and gratitude to loved ones who have passed away in that particular month.

Donation by affected family members is appreciated: $50/observance.
